

Deluxe Classical Guitar Gig Bag

GBC4990CG / 14580

Features and Benefits

Our 4990 Series Guitar Bag delivers exceptional guitar protection for safe storage and transportation. Along with a weather-resistant exterior that defends against the elements, the case features thick padding that prevents impact damage and a soft velvet lining that safeguards the finish. Two accessories compartments provide convenient access to supplies and tools. Backpack-style straps enable hands-free transportation and a cushioned top handle makes for balanced, comfortable carrying. A two-pull zipper fully opens and closes at either end or any point between for ease of loading and unloading.
